PREFACE

THOSE engaged in classical teaching in this country have long felt the need of an Atlas which is good and at the same time inexpensive.

The defects of those hitherto obtainable are (1) failure to show, with the requisite prominence, the natural features of the countries, (2) lack of clearness, owing to the congestion of names in important sections of the maps, and the confusion created by the engraving of names across hachured mountains.

Both these defects the Editor of this Atlas has sought to avoid:—on the one hand, by adopting the system of coloured contours which he has already used in Mr. Murray's "Handy Classical Maps"; on the other, by having all the names necessary for the purposes of ordinary classical study printed in a peculiarly clear and legible type.

The unanimous approval with which the system of coloured contours was welcomed in the earlier publication has induced the Editor to use the same method in an Atlas which will be largely used for historical purposes. The configuration of a country must necessarily be the most important factor in its history, since it exercises an influence not merely on events but also on the character of its population. This fact has become much more widely recognised in recent years, and no expense has been spared to emphasise it in this publication.

It will be noticed that owing to the mountain ranges being no longer engraved it is possible to read any name with ease. Amongst other new features in the Atlas is a sheet containing fourteen plans of famous battlefields of Ancient History; these will be of interest both to teachers and students. A very full index contributes its share to the completeness of the volume.

Its small price will bring it within the reach not merely of students at the Universities, but also of boys at school.

G. B. GRUNDY, D.Litt.,
Corpus Christi College, Oxford.

September, 1904.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION

The chief additions which have been made to the Atlas consist of—

(i) Contours to show the heights on the maps of some of the battlefields.

(ii) An additional contour in the map of Asia Minor, which will bring out more clearly the physical features of this region.

Various misprints have been corrected, and a few alterations made, especially in the map of Roman Britain.

G. B. G.

MURRAY'S HANDY CLASSICAL MAPS.

A NEW SYSTEM.

Edited by G. B. GRUNDY, M.A., Litt.D.,
Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford.

These Maps are now recognized as the best and most convenient in existence for the use of scholars and students at the universities and upper classes of schools.

The old method of engraving and hatching the mountain ranges has been supplemented by colouring the contours with flat brown and green tints, which is now acknowledged by teachers to be the best way of denoting the configuration of the land. A SEPARATE INDEX IS INCLUDED WITH EACH MAP.

GRAECIA { NORTHERN GREECE / SOUTH AND PELOPONNESUS }	Two sheets in one case, 3s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. 6d. net, paper. An entirely new Map; engraved for this series.
GALLIA	One sheet, 2s. net, paper.
BRITANNIA	One sheet, 2s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. net, paper.
HISPANIA	One sheet, 2s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. net, paper.
ITALIA { NORTHERN ITALY / SOUTH AND SICILY }	Two sheet, in one case, 2s. 6d. net, paper.
GERMANIA, RHAETIA, ILLYRIA, MOESIA, ETC.	One sheet, 2s. net, paper.
PALESTINE, SYRIA, AND PART OF MESOPOTAMIA, AND A MAP SHOWING ST. PAUL'S VOYAGES	Three Maps on one sheet, 2s. net, paper.
THE ROMAN EMPIRE (at different epochs)	Two Maps on one sheet, 2s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. net, paper.
THE EASTERN EMPIRES INCLUDING EGYPT	Two Maps on one sheet, 2s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. net, paper.
*ASIA MINOR	One sheet, 2s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. net, paper.
MARE AEGAEUM	One sheet, 2s. 6d. net, cloth; 2s. net, paper.

These Maps are distinct from those in Murray's Small Classical Atlas, and are considerably larger.

By cloth is meant that the Map is mounted on linen and bound in a cloth case; by paper that the Maps are on paper in paper cover.

"These maps of Mr. Murray's are far better than anything which has yet been attempted in the direction of teaching the physical features of ancient geography, and they deserve all attention from students and schoolmasters."—Athenæum.

". . . are admirable, and will prove of great assistance to students of ancient history. We have before warmly praised the colour-scheme of the maps and we need only say of this one (Graecia) that it will help those who use it to realize the relations and circumstances of the Ancient Greek States far better than any other map with which we are acquainted."—Educational Times.

REVUE DES ÉTUDES ANCIENNES.—J. G. C. ANDERSON. Asia Minor (Murray's Handy Classical Maps), Londres, 1903.

"M. Anderson a eu l'excellente idée d'éditer, dans un format commode, une carte de la péninsule qu'il connait si bien. Cette carte lui vaudra la reconnaissance de tous ceux qui s'interessent à l'Antiquité. Autant M. Anderson a été attentif dans l'elaboration scientifique de sa carte, autant son éditeur en a sognié l'execution d'un coup d'œil la gamme hypsométrique. Les divisions administratives sont claires et apparentes. Enfin, la gravure est nette, fine, lisible. Il y à richesse sans empatement L'Asia Minor de la collection Murray est donc à tous égards une publication excellente, qu'on ne saurait trop recommander."—Prof. GEORGES RADET (Bordeaux).
